

INFINITY FARMS

EVENT VENUE

A place to connect. A place to detach. A place for raucous celebration or for calm reflection. A place of contradictions, Infinity Farms is a place where nature's live edge elegantly fuses into the crisp structure of southern modernity.

Tucked into the rolling hills of Southern, Mississippi, just 45 minutes East of New Orleans, Infinity Farms is the Gulf South's newest and most elegant event venue.

From the tree-lined drive, to the winding Myrtle paths, to the stately Pavilion, Infinity Farms strikes a delicate balance between the unpredictable fluidity of the organic world and the carefully planned and precisely proportioned elements of the property's architectural additions.
